

MARDEN SENIOR COLLEGE

EXPECTATIONS OF STUDENTS

Context

Marden Senior College is a government specialist senior secondary college that provides multiple pathways for a diverse post compulsory student cohort.

Students are provided with the opportunity to achieve their personal goals through the provision of extensive learning resources in a purposeful and supportive adult learning environment.

The Marden Senior College community values and promotes:

- Difference and diversity
- Cooperation and respect
- Freedom of expression balanced with social responsibility
- Inclusivity and wellbeing
- Participation and engagement in the learning process

Rights and Responsibilities

Everyone in the Marden Senior College community has the right to work and study in a safe, inclusive environment free from harassment and bullying.

This right is accompanied by the responsibility to develop and maintain respectful working relationships and to ensure that personal behaviour does not interfere with the learning or safety rights of others.

It is expected that all students will contribute responsibly to maintaining a positive learning environment at Marden Senior College.

These expectations are consistent with Department of Education and Child Development policies, government legislation and general community standards.

The college will implement a range of sanctions, including disenrolment from the College, in response to any student behaviour which is not in keeping with these expectations.

P.T.O.

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

*Marden Senior College is a post compulsory/adult learning community that promotes and expects purposeful and responsible student participation and behaviour. To ensure that learning programs and activities at Marden Senior College are conducted effectively the following specific conditions of enrolment apply to all students.

- Punctuality and attendance at all scheduled lessons and other required activities unless alternative arrangements have been made with teachers
- Inform the college of absences from lessons and of any changes to their personal contact details
- Responsible for the management of non scheduled lessons
- Respond appropriately to communication from the college e.g. letters, telephone calls, text messages and emails
- Commitment to maintaining a safe and inclusive learning environment that is free from harassment and bullying
- Courteous and respectful communication with others
- Compliance with staff and College instructions and expectations
- Effective participation in courses and ensuring that work requirements are met
- Mobile phones and other electronic devices to be used in class only through negotiation with staff
- Not to bring alcohol and/or other drugs into the College community nor to be adversely affected by them while on site
- Smoking is not permitted on the site or in the near vicinity of the College
- Responsible use of College facilities, loan materials and resources
- For dependant students under 18 years of age at school commencement, the College will share information about student progress with parents/caregivers

Your cooperation is expected and sanctions will generally apply if these requirements are not observed. It is mandatory for College staff to report unlawful behaviour to the police.

I understand that my enrolment at Marden Senior College is subject to accepting and practising these conditions.

I declare that all of the information as stated in this form is correct.

Student's Signature:

Parent/Guardian's Signature:

Enrolment Counsellor:

Date: