

your pathway to success

Teaching and Learning Framework

Teachers Know your students Students and how they learn Attend regularly Provide challenging and differentiated Participate in learning activities learning activities Access a range of resources including Provide subject Moodles and online resources learning Moodles Explore and use a range of appropriate and • Engage with learning technologies engaging technologies, learning spaces, and and learning spaces authentic learning contexts Engagement Students Students • Participate in opportunities Provide feedback on to collaborate with other learning progress and students and with classroom experience via teachers student surveys Access feedback on tasks Purposeful Adult Learning Environment Collaboration Feedback Trusting and Respectful Teachers Relationships Teachers Provide and facilitate opportunities for Provide ongoing written collaborative learning and verbal feedback for students on learning and tasks regularly Participate and collaborate with colleagues Respond to student Knowing feedback as appropriate how to learn (Metacognition) Students Teachers Develop learning skills and Teach learning skills capabilities eg critical and creative Provide deep learning opportunities to develop thinking, time management capabilities eg critical and creative thinking, time • Take responsibility for own learning management Understand and meet course • Create an environment for students to requirements further develop self-awareness and independent learning

capabilities