Course Information

ANMEC offers either the Ageing or with prior arrangement Disability specialisation. ANMEC has partnered with leading providers in aged care and disability to deliver a contemporary course following the philosophy of empowerment.

The training uses evidence-based practice to support the principles of a person centred approach, and engages learners to deliver care that places the person receiving care, with inclusive decision-making and informed choices about activities of daily living.

Benefits for students

- Acquire skills for work in the health and community services industries
- Facilitators who are practitioners with extensive and current experience in the Health Industry
- Contemporary program delivering a person-centred approach to care

Funding Criteria

- Must be in year 11 or 12 and turning 16 in the year of study
